“ Please accept my deepest sympathies. Your family is in my prayers. I do not know if Marcel or Henri will remember me but I was the Sales Manager for Barnes & Cone in the late 60's and early 70's. I would stop to see John and Bruno regularly. At the time it seemed like I was one of the few who knew him as John instead of Frenchie. I valued his friendship as a young man just getting his feet wet in the business and he was always a gentleman to deal with. I always enjoyed the times spent with John as well as all of you. It has been a long time since I last saw John which was at Jack's Reef probably 10 years ago. It was as if we saw each other last week as we hashed over "the old days". I regret I am unable to be there personally to express these thoughts. John was a fine man. Marcel, I still point out your home on Onondaga Hill to my wife when we go up Makyes to see my cousin Jack at the corner of Yenny Rd. I hope your back is not still giving you major issues. I valued his friendship as a young man just getting his feet wet in the business and he was a gentleman to deal with. I always enjoyed the times I spent with John over the years-business or social. It has b
