

John T Reagan

November 9, 2002

John T. Reagan, 83, of Fairmount, died Saturday at St. Camillus Health & Rehabilitation Center. Born in Syracuse, he graduated from Syracuse Vocational High School. He retired in 1980 as a storekeeper for the Onondaga County Highway Department in Jamesville after 30 years. He was a founding member of Dr. Tom Dooley Choraliers and a life member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, John Barry Division 2, in Syracuse. He was a Eucharistic minister and member of the funeral choir at Holy Family Church and a member of the Holy Name Society. A former member of the Camillus Republican Committee. Survivors: His wife of 52 years, the former Mary Burke; two daughters, Jean Reagan and Joanne Kallfelz, both of Syracuse; a brother, J. William of Lakeland; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren. Services: 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home and 10 a.m. in Holy Family Church. Burial, Greenlawn Memorial Park, Warners. Calling hours, 4 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus. Contributions: St. Camillus Foundation, 813 Fay Road, Solvay 13219.