“ I will always remember Great Uncle John at our family picnics - smiling blue eyes, playing horseshoes and helping Grampa with the sweet corn on the fire. He was a sweet man and he will be missed. My own children were fascinated by him as well and remember their visits to see Great-Great Uncle John with their Gramma Jean. We hope he is now at peace. With love and sympathy, Susan Wilcox, Great Niece of John Williamson

“ It was a priviledge to know Johnny. I will never forget the compassion and love he showed for his sister Gladis, my grandmother, when she was ill. Johnny refelected greatness. He who is truly great is never too great to give attention to the lowly. He " lifts the weak out of the dust and raises the poor from the dunghill" Psalm 113:7 This is what Love does. It never considers its own greatness or another's weakness. Forgetting itself, it gives freely, and gives and gives and gives again. Teresa Hoy Johnny's nephew Fred Hermann's daughter

“ I am Clayton's 4th daughter. Uncle John was very special. He was always such a gentleman and made sure that I would go down the stairs after him just so I would not fall down the steps in his apartment. Also all of the above that everyone mentioned was true. He was just a very special man who thought of everyone else first. His gardening expertize were great. He always had lots of cherry tomatoes for everyone. He will be missed but I'm sure that he is in a much better place. Sincerely' Rita&Bob (The Farmers)

“ I will miss Uncle John, but know that he has gone to a better place. I will remember Uncle John for how his blue eyes twinkled, for his readiness to offer help if he thought it was needed and most of all for his philosophy on life - just put one foot in front of the other. He and my father were hard workers. I thank them both for setting such a good example and trust that I will follow in their foot steps - one foot in front of the other. Jean Downer [Clayton Williamson's 3rd daughter]

“ Uncle John was a family treasure, always putting evryone's needs ahead of his own. That's what made him happy. We'll never forget his smile and the twinkle in his eyes. He was a remarkable man and fascinating uncle ,always telling us stories about the olden days. We referred to him as an angel. We will miss him dearly. “ Uncle John...where does one start. I don't think there are enough words to describe such a humble man as he. There was always a gleam in his eyes and a wittiness about him that made one just admire him. We all thought of him as a kind and honorable man. Clayton Williamson's 2nd daughter, Judy
