“ We are saddened to hear of Joe's passing. We met him in Aruba during his many vacations at the Aruba Beach Club. Joe was very popular with the members. He was very generous with his time and always offered to help when someone needed something in town. He entertained us with many stories of family and job experiences. All those who new him in Aruba will miss his nightly visits and humor.

“ To Warner's family our deepest sympathy for your loss. While only knowing him in the work place, he exemplified that rare character of "goodness" in every manner of business and personal conduct and, to this day, set the standard we all aspire to in doing our jobs. Our prayers are with all of you.
