“ Hi Joey, you're always in my thoughts but today is different...3/8 comes around and it's just a tough one What a pair we were...oh if only our parents knew half of it haha! What I would give for just a few moments to see you again. Have you see my kids, talk about life. I'll see you again someday. I miss you---G ..

“ 12 years Joey...think about you all the time. Just shared with my wife about when we were in the woods and you were not feeling so good. Hauled you over a mile on my back. What a sight that must have been! Me panting and telling you to shut it, you waving two shotguns and yelling "move your fat a mule!" I'd do it again in a second, carry you till I can't get up. Just for one minute to see you again...I miss you.---G

“ I went to school with Joey since kindergarten and we were close when young, we grew apart as years went on, but I always thought fondly of him. I ask not sure why I suddenly thought of his, but it directed me here. I am sure your loss is just as great now as before. My thoughts go out to his family and friends.

“ I was shocked when I saw the obituary for Joe in the paper. I went to West Genesee with him. I did not know him well but what I do remember well from our days at West genny was seeing Joe walk down the hallway or walk into one of our classes and he always had the biggest smile on his face. he was always smiling, lauging and joking and that's what I remember most about him. I am truly saddened by his passing. My deepest sympathies go out to all his family.

“ Cruising Erie Blvd. in the newest car and racing our bikes on 690. Blarney Stone on Thursday nights and Entourage on Sunday's. Teaching me craps at the casino while I watched you win and talking about our stocks and what we'll do when they "hit". Walking the mall and Christmas shopping. Being my wing man on occasion and scolding me about my latest girl. Trips to PA. for fireworks and never-to-be-forgotten, the-best-times-of-my-life, absolutely-legendary nights in Canada. These are some of my best memories of you. You'll be missed by all.

“ At times like this it is very hard to know exactly what to say. No loss is ever easy to talk about. This one is certianly no exception. Lisa, Ashley, Bonnie, Cara Charlotte, and Albert, you are all very much in our prayers today. Your grief is ours, he will be badly missed. Knowing that Joe had a deep love of travel, I firmly believe he is off on the adventure of a lifetime. He is strong, he feels no pain, and he is made whole again in the arms of God.
