“ I’m so shocked to hear of Kathies passing.. Kathie and I met through mutual friends many years ago. I recall all the times we golfed together and took a girls trip to Canada! Oh the laughs we had. Even though miles separated us, I’ll never forget her wit and sense of humor. She was one of a kind.. a strong and caring soul. RIP Kathie 😞

“ Kathie and I met in the medical facility where we were roomies. We became fast friends and truly enjoyed eachother's company. Many times we said it was as if we had always known eachother. Even though we each had our struggles we pulled no punches and laughed so hard at everything from how pitiful we were to the food, which we were not always sure how to identify. The staff came often to quiet us down, only to get sucked in to our daily sitcom. We watched cop shows, SU games and talked about her wonderful experiences and her lovely friends and family. I would show Kathie recipes and she would tell me how she would make them for me. I wish I had met my dear friend Kathie years ago, but we certainly made the most of the time we shared. We laughed together and cried together. I told her, and I truly believe that If I had to break my ankle and have surgery to meet her, then I am more than ok with that. I love you my dear friend and I will never forget you. We shall meet again...

My heart is with all who are missing her now. May your memories and stories bring you comfort during this difficult time.

I remember the two of us walking to the point to watch the boys play baseball. We really didn't care about baseball

I remember Kathy when we started to walk together. It is a mile up Court Street to the corner of my street. I would meet her and because of her long legs, she was always ahead of me. She would say "come on slow poke" all the time to motivate me. Wish she was still here. Rest in peace my friend.

“ *I was so sad to hear of Kathy's passing. We shared playing on a trivia team which was a little serious and a lot of laughing. Every once in a while she would surprise the team with her biscotti. Delish. She will be missed.
