“ My wife, Pat, and I are privileged to have known Larry as a friend and fellow Eastwood Rotarian for the past 22 years. Having shared so much time with Larry in Rotary service at the Carrier Dome allowed us to know and learn from a kind, understanding, and generous man. Our warm condolences go out to all his family.

“ Dear Peter, Liz & Carolyn, & families,

I extend my sympathy to you on the loss of your father, father-in-law and grandfather. As one who tries to keep the family genealogy, I feel a connection to you through those records, from holiday cards exchanged in years passed and updates from Skip & Judy.

“ I have many wonderful, warm, funny memories of Larry from my days at the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce. Larry was very active and involved with the Small Business Council. He was a generous leader, sharing his time, passion for small business advocacy, and knowledge to create programs and opportunities for small business leaders to learn from each other and enjoy the success of hard work and dedication. He was also a team player and enjoyed the camaraderie and partnership of fellow business owners...especially during the years ramping up the the 1986 White House Conference on Small Business. Those were great days and he was a great fellow. Donna Stoner
