

Leo Henry Ball

April 9, 2007

Leo Henry Ball, 25 of Camillus, died Monday at Community General Hospital. Born in Silver Springs, MD he attended West Genesee High School, as well as Boces for computer training. A dedicated and generous father. He was a lover of all music, and self taught at piano, guitar, banjo, and mandolin, among others. Leo loved to read and was a genius with computers. He was a true adventurer at heart. Surviving are a son, Jared Lee Ball of Syracuse; his mother Linda Sue Doyle of Camillus; his brother Michael Christopher Ball; a niece Marlena Andrea Murphy. Calling Hours are 5 to 7 pm Sunday with services to follow at B.L. Bush and Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee Street, Camillus. Please sign the guestbook www.BLBUSH.com

Tribute Wall

JB

“ leo henry ball was my dad i miss him so much if he was here he would be so proud of me i miss hime but i know that he is watching over me right this secon I love u daddy :]

Jared Ball - October 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM

BP

“ Leo Leo Leo...I remember changing your diapers when you were just a baby. In my eyes, you'll always be my little cousin. I'm going to miss you. Love you tons little cuz!

Bruce Parnell - April 14, 2007 at 12:00 AM

UP

“ Leo, Tearfully I mourn your passing, remembering our good times together with lots of laughter, as God would have wanted our lives to be. Your pain is gone now and only eternal peace with God remains. We will all see you soon, until then our prayers remain with you. Rest in peace

Uncle Bubby Parnell - April 14, 2007 at 12:00 AM

MA

“Leo, I remember the first time we met. It was the summer going into sixth or seventh grade, and you were sitting on the front steps to your house. Beside you was about 5 empty bottles of Diet Coke, and I think you were working on the 6th. I’d never seen such soda consumption, and haven’t since! We had plenty of good times, brother. And you were much more of a remarkable person than you ever gave yourself credit for. I’m sorry that we grew apart, but please know that you were an intricate part of my life, and all my memories of you will remain fond and clear: your hearty laugh, your soothing smile, and just your good nature in general. My thoughts and prayers to the family in these tough times. God bless, and I’ll see you on the other side.

Mike Allen - April 13, 2007 at 12:00 AM

KO

“Leo was my friend for over a decade, and we had a lot of fun and a lot of laughs together through the years. We also got into our share of trouble together. I’ll never forget the time in middle school that we skipped school and went to the mall, and the principal, Mr. Manning, found us there and drove us back to school. Leo, you were a good man, a good Dad, and a good friend, and I’ll never forget you, buddy!”

Kevin O’Brien - April 12, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JM

“Leo was a stand up guy! He was a great friend! He came across as a quite guy, but once you got to know Leo you were able to know the type of person that he was. He was sweet, caring, and so much fun to be around! Leo will be missed by many! God Bless his family! Know that you will be in my prayers! Know that God has plans for him!

Jessica Miller - April 11, 2007 at 12:00 AM