“ Jean and I were friends of Leon and Helen for many years dating back to the 1950's and were members of the Christianairs group of the Tabernacle Baptist Church in Syracuse, N.Y. I knew Helen and her brother Dick way back before WW2 when they lived on Corning Ave. How time flies.

“ Dear Marcia, Larry and family, My wife and I would like to send our condolences to you and your family. Your father and mother were such good friends with my parents and my wife and I always enjoyed talking to them if we saw them out shopping. Nicer people you could never find. Sincerely, Tom and Laurel Munson
