

Leonard J. Mastrocola

November 11, 1928 - December 4, 2020

Leonard J. Mastrocola, 92, of Camillus passed away Friday, December 4th, 2020 at Francis House while on hospice. Born in Conemaugh Township, PA to Anthony and Daisy (Toderò) Mastrocola, he fondly remembers growing up in Pennsylvania and later served in the US Air Force in both Active and Reserve Duty. He worked as an HVAC mechanic and salesman with Onondaga Heating & Air Conditioning for many years. Honesty and integrity were his hallmarks, and he was well respected by his friends and colleagues.

Len was an avid outdoorsman and a former member of Elbridge Rod & Gun Club. He was a skilled craftsman and loved working in the yard and garden. He also enjoyed archery, bowling, and the occasional card game with friends.

Len is survived by his wife of 71 years Doris Oster Mastrocola; a daughter Cheryl (Robert Driscoll) Mastrocola of Syracuse; a son Robert (Laurie) Mastrocola of Fairport, NY; two grandchildren Kara and Mark Mastrocola. He was predeceased by his brother and two sisters. He was devoted to his family and never missed an opportunity to tell others how proud he was of them.

Services will be private. A memorial service with opportunity for family and friends to gather will be held at a later date.

Burial with Military Honors will be held at Onondaga County Veterans

Cemetery. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus.

Contributions may be made to Francis House, 108 Michaels Ave, Syracuse, NY 13208 and Hospice of CNY, 990 7th North St., Liverpool, NY 13088.

“ I have many wonderful memories of Uncle Lenny and family when they would visit my grandparents in Jerome during our younger days. Also I would look forward visiting all my cousins when my parents made trips to Syracuse and Camillus. Uncle Lenny and Aunt Doris would always make you feel welcome. Uncle Lenny will now be with his siblings once again.
