“ We've been neighbors for years. "Mr Clark" always walked all around the neighborhood, always dressed up, and always smiling. He would talk with my kids and would always wave when we drove past his house. At Halloween "Mrs Clark" would come to the door just to see the kids all dressed up. He was a corner stone on Mason Dr and will be greatly missed. This neighborhood sure isn't the same anymore. Our deepest sympathies are with you and your families. The Emanuelli Family
