“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Robinson family for their loss. Lois was one of the dearest friends ever. We shared so much in common, including a husband named Chuck. Her love for the Lord was an inspiration to all who knew her; she truly lived the life. I can only rejoice for her to be with her beloved Chuck and those who went before her. It seems Heaven must be just a little bit sweeter with her there.

“ Dear Tom, Jim and George - I am sad to hear of your Mom's passing. She was so dear to the teens of Howlett Hill church during those years of our youth. Her music was a gift to so many. She was a friend and encourager to my Mom through the years. May your grief be soothed by memories of this beautiful woman and may she rest in God's peace. Sue Ellen Norris Ruetsch

Oh we are so sad to hear of her passing. Sunday was our last time to see her. We enjoyed 45 minutes of good interaction with her. She kept saying, "I just want to go home"...."I just want to see Chuck." We told her she would see him soon. She started out the new year in the best of ways. Our prayers are for you, the family left to mourn. The Robinsons were great examples of Christ's love. Fred & Linda Forbes
