“Wow! What can anyone really say at a time like this other than to shout words of praise for such a wonderful man! I'm sure that right now as this is being read, Dad is happily preparing the world's best lasagna for everyone in heaven! I guess that Jesus couldn't wait one more day to sample a dish that made everyone evoke the comment "God, is that great!" Although I only spent one afternoon getting to know Lou, he welcomed me into his home and made me feel like a life long friend. I feel honored to have met him and consider it a privilege to continue a friendship with such a great family that was obviously led by a great husband and father.

“Dear Mrs. Pezzolesi and Family, I am so sorry to hear of Louie's passing. We grew up in the same neighborhood in Needham and attended school together. Our parents were close friends as was everyone in our neighborhood. I remember playing Hide and Seek, cards and softball to while away the summer. My friend, Ateo Ricciardelli who also grew up in our neighborhood, joins me in sending our sincerest condolences to all of you. Sincerely, Eileen Giumetti O'Connor

“ Carol, Tim, Bob & Noel, There are not words to express what we want to say. The friendship our families have had over the last forty plus years says it all. Immanuel Baptist, Sunday picnics & Sunday dinners after church, baseball games, day trips, our kids over nights, birthdays and so much more. But Oh we can't forget the camping trip at the point on Indian Lake - picking blueberries for breakfast and having morning devotions up in a tree overlooking the lake. Oh yes - the phone calls from Lou - "Stan my machine is broke again can you fix it?" Wouldn't trade these memories for anything. May God give you all His strength and peace that only comes from HIM. If there is anything we can do let us know. We will be there for the services. We love you all. Love you - Stan & Bev

“ We were shocked and saddened to learn last week of Lou's passing, yet we know he has gone to a far better place. Lou was everything the obituary says he was and more. He was a great Christian brother and role model and a wonderful friend. I will always have fond memories of our years together on the softball diamond, first as teammates and then as friendly opponents. Our heartfelt condolences go out to Carol and all the family.
