

Lucy Evelyn Cook

April 6, 1916 - August 3, 2015

Lucy Evelyn Cook, 99, of Camillus passed away Monday at Iroquois Nursing Home. Born in Belle Isle, NY April 6th, 1916 to Frank and Susie (Spencer) Virginia. She was a pro at crocheting and tatting. She was full of life and always upbeat, happy, cracking jokes, took movie pictures of us all at family gatherings. Every Memorial Day, "old" memorial day, May 30th, all of the family would gather at her sister Lilian Madden's home and have a cook out/picnic. She and her husband Jim along with additional siblings and their family would go way up into Canada to Wolf Lake and fish. She could cook any fish and frog legs for her husband. She loved watching baseball and yelled and cheered while watching the games on TV.

She was predeceased by her husband James in 1982; her three brothers William, Frank and Charles Virginia; a sister Lilian Madden.

Lucy is survived by her son Richard; a sister Rosamond L. Virginia-Noce; two grandchildren Michael and David; two great grandchildren Emma and Heidi; 17 nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be held Thursday from 5 to 8 pm at B. L. Bush and Sons Funeral Home 10 Genesee Street Camillus. A Mass will be celebrated Friday at 10 am in the Holy Family Church, Fairmount. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Skaneateles.

“ I'm not related to Aunt Lucy biologically but her nephew, Edward R Noce SR has been like a Dad to me since I was three or four. Aunt Lucy accepted my Mom and my siblings as family and for that I will always be thankful. I love and miss you!

Richard and family, I am so sorry reading about your mom's passing. I used to enjoy our weekly talks at Wegmans when she shopped. Rest In Peace Aunt Lucy, you earned it.
