

Marie Agnes (McCann) Resnick

April 16, 2004

Marie A. Resnick, 88, formerly of Turtle St, Syracuse died Friday at Loretto. Born in Memphis she had previously worked at Flah's, Dey Brothers, and Chappell's Department Stores. She was predeceased by her father George McCann on September 1, 1980 and her mother Mary (Teahan) McCann on May 4, 1972 and her husband George on September 10, 1994. Survived by a sister Marguerite Dugan of Fairmount; two nieces Marilyn Resnick and Elaine Francis; and a nephew Robert Resnick. Services are 11:30 am Tuesday at B.L. Bush & Sons and 12 noon at Holy Family Church, Fairmount. Calling hours are Monday 5 to 7 pm at funeral home, 10 Genesee St, Camillus. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Baldwinsville.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ TO THE FAMILY OF MARIE RESNICK: HI! I AM SURE THAT YOU DO NOT KNOW ME, BUT MARIE USED TO LIVE IN THE APARTMENT NEXT DOOR TO ME ON TURTLE STREET FOR A BRIEF TIME. SHE WAS ALWAYS A GOOD PERSON, BUT AT THE TIME THAT I MET HER, SHE WAS NOT VERY HEALTHY, AND THE NEXT TIME I ASKED ABOUT HER, SHE WAS TAKEN TO A NURSING HOME. I JUST WANTED TO OFFER MY CONDOLENCES & SAY MAY GOD LOVE, BLESS & TAKE CARE OF MARIE ALWAYS. P.S. SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL WHEN SHE WAS YOUNGER...

KIM & PETER J. BATTISTA - April 21, 2004 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ We use to visit Marie, up at Loretto all the time. I would bring her homemade apple pie, she enjoyed that very much. Marie will be missed very deeply.

Jula & Jordan Cathers - April 20, 2004 at 12:00 AM

MA

“ Sorry to learn of your loss, Marguerite. You probably remember my folks, Louie and Mary Wheeler. My sister, Joanne, died in 1995 and both parents are gone. We lived next door to Mrs. Pickard and then sold to Miriam Bovar Skovrinski. I introduced myself to Marie many many years ago when I was attending CCBI. She was working for Woolworths. She had those unforgettable eyes and striking hair. I always remember your mom and you. I used to tie your shoes when my mom came down to visit or borrow water at the well. Take care, sincerely, Margie Wheeler Abell margie wheeler abell - April 19, 2004 at 12:00 AM