“ I don't even know where to start with all the past memories. Sunday morning breakfasts growing up cool pops always in the out door freezer. The time myself and Greg were pulled down Southbay road on a sled by the old red blazer lol. Walking out to the islands in winter. Bullhead fishing all night long sitting on a bucket. Its all coming back. Love ya Marlowe someday we will meet again your Homie

“ So many great and wonderful memories of growing up in No Law with Marlowe. We were an unseperable gang growing up - scouts, camping out, fishing, swimming and our pick up baseball - football games. Hazel having enough of us fighting and arguing over safe or out and sending us all packing. Rest in peace my old friend. Kelly Dempsey

“ I grew up with Marlowe in North Lawrence and have good memories of those times. We also both started at Crouse-Hinds at the same time years ago and shared an apartment for about a year in N. Syracuse area. I have not seen him for years, but have good memories of him and offer my condolences to his family here in the Syracuse area and up north.
