“ To my dear, sweet, great Aunt Mar. I love you so much and I am going to miss you so terribly. My heart aches when I see your beautiful face and smile. My only conciliation is that you are now with Uncle Ross - the love of your life. Thank you Aunt Mar, for everything you taught me, but mostly for your love. You have been a mother to me my entire life and I could not have asked for a better role model. You are the most graceful, compassionate, and caring person I have ever known in my life. I promise you I will keep your memory and Uncle Ross's memory alive forever. You returned to the love of your life on D-day - for you, my sweet, wonderful aunt, the war is finally over. I love you so much and I will cherish you forever - Laurie
