

Mary V. Chapman

September 24, 2010

Mary (Reichert) Chapman, 88, of Lakeland passed away peacefully at home. Born in Collamer she graduated from N. Syracuse High School and had worked for US Gov't Welfare Dept. in Syracuse. Mary was long time member of Christ Community United Methodist Church and its Naomi's table, she volunteered reading to 1st graders at Lakeland Elementary; she was an avid gardener and enjoyed canning. She and her husband travelled to all 50 states and after his passing she travelled to Israel and Egypt. She was predeceased by her husband of 43 years Clifford in 1990. She is survived a son Guy (Wendy) of Lakeland; a daughter June (Cord Jones) Bolstridge of Silver Spring, MD; two grandchildren Clifford and Elana Chapman. Calling hours will be 4-7 pm on Oct. 7 at B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Main Street, Camillus. Services are 11 am Oct. 8 at Christ Community United Methodist Church. Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to her church at 3474 Stiles Rd, Syracuse, NY 13209 or Hospice of CNY. Please sign her guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Guy and Wendy , I miss your mom she was a dear friend to me .I am glad she's at peace. Please take care and god bless your whole family . Melody McDonald 10/08/10

Melody Mcdonald - October 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

CP

“ I will always remember mary as a lovely and gentle soul with a heart for the Lord. I was blessed to have known her.

Cheryl Palmer - October 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM