

Mickey Paul Sammartino

May 8, 2012

Mickey Paul Sammartino, 82, of Warners, passed away peacefully at his home with his loving family. A native of New Orleans, LA to parents Antonio and Jenny (Fragapani) Sammartino when he married Lorna P. Bimson they moved to Rome, NY and later to Warners where he lived the last 48 years. He served proudly with the US Air Force in WWII during the Berlin Air Lift and with the US Army Reserves 10th Mountain Division until in 1982. He also owned Mickey's Barbershop in the Valley for many years, where he was known as "Mick" or "Sam". He was predeceased by his wife Lorna and a son Michael. He is survived by four daughters and one son, Nadia M. (Patrick) Sims of Weedsport, Mark. P. (Karen) of Beaufort, NC, Christine E. Sammartino of Norfolk, VA, Shelley A. (Val) Sammartino of North Syracuse, Lisa B. (Jim) Webster of Bridgeport; ten grandchildren, Sheelagh, Kevin, Jason, Becky, Kristin, Sara, Tony, Jessica, Sheree and Joey; 13 great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, brother-in-law Leslie (Marleen) Bimson of charlotte, NC and sister-in-law Sylvia (Bil) Fitch of Preble. Admiration for a quiet proud man that worked to obtain his GED in his forties, a man that helped many people through difficult times in their lives; his children grew up with intermittent times of having multiple families living in the home. Though he was a very hard working man Dad always had time for his children. Picnics and camping, teaching us to catch our first sunfish, going to our concerts, graduations and as a proud smiling father giving his daughters away at their wedding. Always wishing that he could have given us more, not realizing what he and Mom gave us was more precious than gold. I am sure we will share many fond memories and laughs as we raise a glass to our family foundation and ICON, and knowing that our Mom was waiting to meet him, gave him the peace that he needed. We Love you Dad. Services are 1 pm Friday, May 18th at B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee (Main) St., Camillus. No calling hours. Burial with military honors in Greenlawn Cemetery, Warners. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Hospice of CNY, 990 7th North St., Liverpool, NY 13088. Please sign his guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

“ Love you Grampa. You will be missed by everyone. I'm glad you were a part of my life growing up and I'm glad that I got to spend so much time making you laugh when you lived with Mom and Dad. I know Dad was relieved to get a brake from being the one picked on...HA HA HA

“ To the Sammartino family - it is with sadness that I read the news of Mickey's passing. I knew Mickey and some of you for the 15 years I lived next door on Warners Road. I started my family there and knew Mickey to be a kind, gentle and quiet man. His passing has made me reminisce and I have some smiles when I think of Mickey. I was fortunate to have met Lorna, as well, since she was alive for a short time after we moved there. I still have combs (and use them!)from Mickey's barbershop that he gave me! With loving regards and in sympathy, Tammy Shelly
