

Mircea Onciulescu

July 16, 1963 - January 27, 2025

Mircea Onciulescu, 61, of Syracuse passed away unexpectedly at home on Monday, January 27th. His loss has left a deep void in the lives of his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Mircea was born on July 16, 1963 to Traian Leonard and Maria Onciulescu and raised in Bucharest, Romania. Many stories he shared about his life in Romania were about his extensive biking adventures, military memories, and summers in the country at his grandparents' house. He always dreamed of coming to America, and he made that dream happen – creating a beautiful life here with his wife Iuliana and daughter Nicole.

He had a talent for music, playing violin growing up and then expanded his love for music with orchestral music, operas, and shared music with his daughter. Throughout the years, he also cultivated a collection of various instruments including a pan flute, harmonica, trumpet, accordion, multiple guitars, and more.

Mircea found his greatest joy in the company of his family. A devoted servant of the Lord Jesus Christ, he lived his faith through selfless acts of kindness and a generous spirit, always willing to help those in need. Whether he was taking peaceful walks with loved ones, playing his guitar with passion, savoring every sip of his carefully crafted coffee, watching planes, or embracing the freedom of the open road on his motorcycle, Mircea lived each moment with a heart full of gratitude, love, and a deep desire to uplift those around him.

He lived his life working hard to love and provide everything for his beloved wife and daughter, whom he loved so dearly. They were a tight and powerful unit of 3. In addition, he is survived by his mother who lives in Romania. He was predeceased by his father.

Friends may greet the family on Thursday, February 6th from 5 to 6:30 pm at Westvale Seventh-Day Adventist Church. Services will be held following at 6:30 pm at the church.

Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to Parkview Junior Academy, 412 S Avery Ave, Syracuse, NY 13219.
