

Natalie A Cornwall

January 10, 2002

Natalie A. Graham Cornwall, 75, of Owasco and formerly of Williamsville, NY died Thursday, January 10, 2002. Born in Olean, she received a bachelor's degree from the State University College at Fredonia and a master's degree in Vocal Music Education from Ithaca College.

She retired in 1982 after 19 years as a vocal music teacher with the Williamsville Central School District. She was a member of Skaneateles Presbyterian Church.

Survivors: Her husband of 24 years, Ramon E.; two daughters, Jody Rodriguez of Cypress, Texas, and Julie Pedro of Manlius; a stepdaughter, Amy Robinson of Red Hook; a son, Jeffrey Jarvis of Williamsville; three stepsons, Charles Cornwall of Roanoke, Va., Craig Cornwall of Delevan and Lincoln Cornwall of Wahiawa, Hawaii; a sister, Jean Brehm of Fort Myers, Fla.; a brother, Roger Graham of New Hampshire; 11 grandchildren.

Services: 3 p.m. Jan. 20 in Skaneateles Presbyterian Church. B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Skaneateles, has arrangements.

Burial in Lakeview Cemetery, Skaneateles, New York Contributions: Skaneateles Presbyterian Church, 97 E. Genesee St., Skaneateles 13152.