

Patricia (Reid) MacCrea

November 9, 1931 - October 17, 2009

Patricia (Reid) MacCrea, 77, of DeWitt, passed away peacefully Saturday at home. Pat was born Nov. 3, 1931, in Glen Ridge, N.J. An SU graduate, she was an active member in the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority and the Republican Party, running for Syracuse City Council in 1971. She worked for many years at the Onondaga County Department of Social Services.

She was preceded in death by her husband Robert (Bob) in 1976. As the founder of the Jonathan Cancer Fund in memory of her grandson, Pat's vision was to assist with the ordinary needs of families facing extraordinary circumstances. Pat enjoyed traveling to visit family and to Europe, notably to the family's ancestral castle in Scotland. Gardening and reading were her favorite pastimes.

Pat is survived by her sister, Jackie (Herb) Allee, of Bettendorf, Iowa; four sons, Douglas (Kathy) of Ames, Iowa, Jerry of Syracuse, Stephen (Amy) of Hillsborough, N.J., and Peter (Staci) of Tully; five grandchildren, Jim, Erica (Ryan Patrick), Matt, Ryan and Rob; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held 1 p.m. Saturday at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, 1308 Meadowbrook Dr., Syracuse. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus.

“ I am a medical assistant for one of her doctors and will miss Pat a great deal. She always had great stories to tell and I looked forward to seeing her. I am saddened to hear of her passing and know the world is an emptier place without her. Remember the good memories and all she has done.

“ Pat was the most generous and altruistic person I have had the honor to count among my friends. Even as I feel diminished by her passing, I will always be enriched by having known her. To paraphrase a much better wordsmith than I, 'she was a woman, take her for that all in all. I shall not look upon her like again.'

“ Our sympathy goes out to the MacCrea sons and their families. Our wonderful memories of the kindness, warm hospitality, and practical helpfulness shown to us when we moved in next door to them on arriving in Syracuse from England in 1970 will always be remembered. Helping us find Erie Blvd to buy linen on day one; helping Susan find Ed Smith School on day 2; helping with baby sitting often; finding the best source of apples; and on and on. We and our sons John and Tom will always appreciate this warm welcome to Syracuse.

“ Our families deepest sympathy to yours and your families. Though never met Pat, she was an extraordinary woman in our families eyes. We too recently lost someone who meant the world to us, our daughter Tristyn to cancer. We spent lots of time at University Hospital, where we were able to be part of The Jonathan Cancer Fund, and the many people who are involved. Not knowing your mother, I can honestly say that she is wonderful and will be remembered in our family for many years to come. It truly shows that there are people out there who want to help make a difference in other's lives when they just feel there is no hope at all. Our daughter Tristyn is an Angel of Heaven, who will meet your mother at the gates with her arms wide open to help her cross the path to the beginning of her new life among all those who truly mean the most to all of us. Sincerely, The Eaton Family

“ Uncle Pete, Aunt Staci, and Robbie- I'm so sorry I can't come to the funeral on Saturday. If I -could- be there, I would. I love you guys and I miss you lots. 'Grandma Pat' was a wonderful woman and I'm glad I got the chance to know her. If you guys need anything, you know where to find me. I love you guys! ~Krystal :o)

“ Dear MacCreas, I was shocked and sadden to hear from Jackie and Herb on Friday about Pat's illness. Then, soon after, to hear about her death. The Spencer/Reid clan, and now MacCrea clan, is probably having dinner and playing cards together in heaven this evening. My husband, Walt, and I are sorry we are unable to attend the funeral on Saturday. Pat was so generous when my mother was ill that we feel especially badly not to be able to attend. With love,
Sandra
