“ We are so sorry that we cannot make it back to Camillus for the services as the trip will be too much for my mom, Ethel Gorman, who is now 96.

I will always remember the morning coffee breaks at our house after all the neighborhood kids were safely off to school. Pat and Ethel would sit in the kitchen over a cup of Sanka or Nescafe and catch up on the latest news, share stories of our latest childish antics (or missteps) and just enjoy a few moments to themselves before going about their daily schedules of laundry, groceries, and cleaning. More often than not the conversation would include something humorous, which would result in your mom's signature laugh carrying itself up to the rafters and beyond.

I will always also be thankful to your mom jumping to the aid of my mom to help drive my rapidly spiking temperature down when I was desperately ill with pneumonia. I might not be here today without her nursing skills in consult with my mom's nursing skills.

Rest in peace Pat Miller, we will never forget you.
