

Paul H Black

February 14, 2003

Paul H. Black, 74 of Howlett Hill, died Friday, February 14, 2003. A native of Marcellus he graduated from Marcellus High School in 1946 and served in Army during the Korean War. Paul retired from Allied Chemical in 1985 after 23 years and also worked at OCWA until 1993. Survived by his wife Marian (Waldburger), five daughters, Susan E. Black of Syracuse, Melinda L. VanDelinder of Bath, NY, Melissa J. Henderson of Camillus, Deborah Archer of Florida, Joyce Scott of Florida; four sons, William Leubner of Greenwood, NY, Kevin Leubner of Jordan, George Black of Florida, Gary Black of Florida; two brothers, Charles Black, Jr. of Marcellus and William Black of Marcellus; three sisters, Tish Perkins of Versailles, NY, Judy Baumgartner of Fayetteville, Janet Fox of Scottsdale, AZ; nine local grandchildren and several great grandchildren. Funeral services with the Rev. David Olcott officiating were held Tuesday at the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus. Contributions may be made to Howlett Hill Fire Department or Marcellus Ambulance.