“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Paul's relatives and friends. I never met Paul, but I got to be friends with Suzie (though I don't think she likes being called Suzie anymore) and Tina during some long bus commuting into Manhattan in the late 80s.

“ Mom just called and our hearts go out to all of you. Dad was Paul's God Father and named after him. We spent last evening going over fond memories and will certainly talk to Mom as soon as possible. “ Bye Uncle Paul.. I'll always remember visiting aunt kay on those long afternoons and enjoying those van damme movies and listening in on your commentary to go along with it. You were always quick with a comment that reflected your uncle paul charm and I'll never forget those running shoes, shorts and conversation. I hope they choose someone special to take care of Alex for you. I miss you man and I only feel bad I wasn't able to say good bye personally... Love you

“ Paul an ardent runner,ran with the Rumson Hash House Harriers of New Jersey every Saturday until he relocated to upstate New York several years ago. Paul could always be counted on to make us all laugh as he made sure everyone knew exactly where he stood on his political beliefs, who would win the big league football or baseball game or which brewery made the best beer or any other topic. Never one to hold back, Paul entertained us with his opinions, humor, wit and love of having a fun time with the Hash House Harriers. He and his four legged buddy, Alex, who Paul brought to each of our runs have been missed by us since they moved. Not many weeks go by however, without someone retelling a story of the time "Paulie" did or said something funny. We will continue to tell those stories. At Paul's families request the New Jersey Rumson Hash House Harriers will make a donation in Paul's memory to the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (CNYSPCA) in lieu of flowers.

“ I have a fond memory of the first time I met Paul Sr. ... it was also my first (and only!) Hash House Harriers event! While I attempted to ease my anxiety about conquering a running course with multiple 'beverage' stops, along came Paul Sr., leading the pack, with a massive grin on his face! I will never forget that day - whether out for a run or rallying the troops for the next spot on the trail, he was clearly the life of the party and loved by all.
