“ My husband and I have fond memories of Rev. P.V. George who officiated at our wedding at Fairmount Community Church almost 40 years ago. What a wonderful life of service he gave to the Syracuse community. We send sincere condolences from Paul and Joan Brooks and the family of Jack and Bettie Shawcross.

“ Dear Leela and Sarah and families, I have so many wonderful memories of P.V., as a young teenager I remember Confirmation classes that he made interesting and relevant. I also fondly recall PV, Carol, Leela, and Sarah coming to our cottage on the lake for a bbq. These are precious memories that helped shape my spiritual life as an adult. PV will always be remembered as an incredibly kind person who made the world a better place in his humble and unassuming way. Much love to you all. ❤️

My visit with PV last summer was very interesting and fulfilling. I spent time saying the names of people he used to know and bringing him up to date. He seemed to appreciate it.

He was dearly loved by the people at the Jewish home. Everyone had good memories to share with me

During his time at Fairmont community Church he interacted with our family on many occasions: baptisms, marriages, etc. God bless him as he rises to the throne of God to be joined with Carol again
