

Phyllis Jane Sigman

March 21, 2003

Phyllis Jane (Stone) Sigman, 90 of Camillus died Friday, March 21, 2003. Born August 29, 1912 to Frederick Charles Stone and Annie Locke in Somerset, England she lived in Fairmount and Camillus area since 1943. Phyllis retired in 1978 after 37 years with Crucible Steel. She was a member of Camillus First United Methodist Church, Camillus Seniors and O.E.S. Camillus Chapter 438. She was predeceased by husbands' Harley Cook and John R. Sigman. Survived by a daughter, Marilyn Moore of Camillus; two sons James Cook of Scottsdale, AZ and David Cook of Abingdon, VA; eight grandchildren Deborah Wade, David Cook, Jr., Donald Cook, Christine McDonald, April Cook, Patrice Cook, Teri Moore, Melissa Daniels; six great grandchildren, John McDonald, Paul McDonald, James McDonald, Sarita Wade, Tiffany Cook, Holly Cook. Services are 11 am Tuesday at Camillus First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Michael Grinnals officiating. Burial will be in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Warners. Calling hours are 2-4 and 7-9 pm with a Eastern Star service at 8 pm at the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee Street, Camillus. Contributions may be made to Humane Association of CNY, PO Box 38, Liverpool, NY 13088.