“ Today, I learned of Rand's passing and the thought was very sad. I was fortunate enough to work with Rand while at ALZA. He was a gentle soul. When I reflect back at the team of people I interacted with while at ALZA, he is up there as was one of the 'good ones'.

“ I am very sad to hear of Rand's passing. I enjoyed working with him at Alza, but enjoyed most his outlook on life, many experiences and the stories he shared. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ I met Rand when I first started at ALZA back in 1992. He was a uniquely different person, one of a kind. I read somewhere that what counts in life is not the number of hours you put in, but how much you put in those hours. Rand definitely lived his hours in the right way. We're missing you already.

“ It is with great sadness I just learned about the passing of Randy. We became friends throughout his time at ALZA. We spend together many Monday Night Football routing for a different team and having discussions/disagreements about who was the best team. Too bad life drifted us apart. I will miss him

“ I am sad to hear of Rand's passing. He was an office mate and a good friend for many years. He was very fond of sports, especially basketball and football. Anytime I see a Syracuse game on TV, I'll think about Rand. He was a good friend and will be missed.

Hey Jerry, I was thinking of the great times playing hoops at Alza. I texted Tom Studebaker today and tried to name the regulars who showed up to play hoops at Alza, of course Rand and you were one of the regulars. RIP Rand, thanks for the good times on the court with you and your love for basketball.

“ I am saddened to hear of Rand's passing. He was my friend. Rand and I shared an office at Alza. Sometimes during lunch hour he gave me pointers on playing basketball. "Aim by pointing your elbow toward the basket. Use your wrist to apply backspin to the ball." So, today I am a straight shooter. Thanks Rand. I will miss you. -Bob S

“ I am very saddened to learn about the passing of Rand. Rand and I were friends throughout his time at ALZA. His refreshingly unique attitude and perspective were always fun and made for interesting conversations. We had many discussions and occasional disagreements on sports -- another one of his interests. I will miss him and it makes me sad that I did not keep in contact the last few years.

“ I liked Rand since the first time I talked to him. He was very objective in his thinking, but direct to the point. I liked that, so once in a while I will have this conversations of radical thinking with him. He loved indian food, so he showed me an Indian restaurant, which became my favorite, since is so similar to peruvian food. Thanks Rand for showing me that to be different is Ok. Jorge

“ I am very sorry to hear of Rand's passing. I worked with him at Alza for many years and he was a good friend. He not only loved animals, but music as well. In 1990 I purchased a Fender Stratocaster from him which I still have. I will think of him every time I pull out that guitar to play. Rand will always live with me in spirit. We'll all miss you Rand! - Jack
