“ Where do I begin...so many memories; so many lessons....but what is held closes to my heart is the motto he always went by and always taught me...he always told me "Young lady pick yourself up from the seat of the pants and move on...Never fall on your face; your my daughter and we stand tall." I cant tell you one specific memory except how we always had our Nascar days and races at Oswego Speedway...and if you look at his pic on this page; it my hand with my nascar shirt on; holding my hand on his shoulder....always in my heart my precious jewel....never will I say good bye...I will see you soon old man....I LOVE YOU DADDY

“ I will always remember when you used to tell me all the crazy stories you had in you life and in the summer time when you were always outside sitting on the sidewalk and I used to walk over to you and talk.
I love and miss you papa ❤️
