“ Shirley - Dan Kishman here. My sincere condolences for you loss. You and Dick were always such friendly and cheery neighbors. And this means a lot when one occupies the anchor house on a cul-du-sac!
My old workmate Paul Gruman filled me in on much Chrisfield history, all of which made you all the more endearing. -Dan K.

“ Such a wonderful cousin, loving husband, father, grandfather, son, and overall great person. I remember all the family gatherings and his jovial self. Loved his beer and share a meal with the Bell's, Migdal's, Gruman's, Neimeier's, and Pikarsky's.

When I was a youngster, my father would visit Dick's mother, Mina (my father;s sister) and his father over above the Swallow's tavern, on South Ave. Dick and I were always rough housing and lead to wrestling in an empty bedroom over there. He would always win. Little did I know at the time he was 12 yrs my senior, no wonder. I was glad he always wanted to play with me.

I know he's going to be missed. With condolences and sympathy to Shirley and the extended Chrisfield family.

“ Dearest Shirley, so sorry to hear about Dick.
I remember all the Thursday nights at Top O the Hill when the "cousins" would come in for dinner. Pooney and I had such fun.
I also remember his famous Bloody Mary's .
My sincerest condolences

“ I'm Paul Hyland's. Nephew. As kids Dick and I would help out at Hyland's. I now cherish fond memories of working with Dick on such projects as selling Christmas trees for two dollars each.
I'm sympathy,
