“ Dear Mrs. Narusky, Dan, and Jack, I'm so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of Mr. Narusky - such a quiet and quick wit he had. He never spoke just to hear himself speak, but he had the ability to get right to the heart of the matter. I will always remember his smiling eyes. May the love and support of family and friends see you through this very difficult time. Sincerely, Linda

“ On behalf of the United States Submarine Veterans (USSVI), we offer our sincere condolences to Marilyn, Daniel, John, and all of RJ's family and friends as you mourn his passing. May God whisper peace into your hearts, comfort, and heal them. We are grateful for Robert's service to our country in the U.S. Submarine Service during WWII on the USS S-42 SS-153 and the USS Rock SS-274. To our "Brother of the Dolphin" we say ... "Sailor, rest your oar. We have the watch. May you rest in peace and may God bless your loved ones who remain. Thank you for your service to our country." Robert J. 'RJ' Narusky, EM3, US Navy, Now on Eternal Patrol. Fair Winds and Following Seas Shipmate Rev. Ray Fritz, National Chaplain United States Submarine Veterans, USSVI.

“ I was extremely sadden to hear of your loss. Mr. Narusky was a great guy and someone that was truly an influence in my teens. I will always remember his sense of humor and his willingness to lend a hand when someone was in need. We were all blessed to have him on our lives. Mrs. Narusky, Jack and Dan please accept my deepest condolences....Bob
