“ Bob and I spent many days combing the fields and woods near Warners, eating longjohns and green apples and collecting leekes (I do not remember what we did with them). Sledding in the winter and riding our bikes to Liverpool on the Thruway before it was open, with our eyes always alert for the police. I recall his father taking us down to the RR diesel repair shop (awsome). And let me not forget his 57 Ford convertible that took us on many rides to many places at speeds that we will not talk about. I am so happy that I got to visit with him last summer and sad thay I will not be seeing him again for some time.

My deepest condolences. Jim Williams

Dear Babs, your children and grandchildren, my deepest condolences to all of you. Bob was a good man and he will be missed by all of us. Cherish in the memories we have of the family gatherings for birthdays, holidays and of course the softball games. Know that you will always have an open invitation to visit us in Charleston, SC. Your loving brother and Uncle - Jerry and Kat.
