“ A great man will be buried today, just a few short hours from now, my grandpa Walker. He was one of our greatest generation, age 17 and lying to get IN to the Navy so he could fight for our country after Pearl Harbor. Always a showman and a flirt with the ladies his many stories will be missed everywhere but in my heart where i will keep them always. Thank you for taking us in, making us safe and giving me my first real father figure. You will be missed forever but never be forgotten. I love you.

“ Goodby and thank you to my "big brother" for saving me from bullies in school, for taking me to all those square dances when I was a teen, for being a friend all my life. I will love and remember you forever. To Virginia, the children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, I send my love and sympathy. I know you will miss him terribly, just as I will. Thank you all for all the happiness you gave him over the years. He loved every one of you and was so very proud of you.

“ Virginia & family, My deepest sympathy to all of you. I worked with Bob at DMV for I believe all the years he worked there as I retired over 11 yrs. ago with 39 yrs. service. Bob was a very unique person with so much knowledge to share. We had many laughs over the years as well as difficult jobs at times but he always had a smile on his face and loved his family so much.
