“ My thoughts go to the whole family. I am so glad I visited uncle Ron in June last year when I came across the pond. He greeted me with his lovely smile and a hug. I will always remember him and aunt Donna when we visited the US family for the first time in June 1980 and again for the wedding of Tammy and Mark. I am truly grateful for my father in-law Charles Gridley for uniting us all. RIP Ron. Xx

“ My prayers and sympathy to Tracy, Tammy & your families. What an wonderful man your Dad was. He was so blessed having such loving and wonderful daughters. I know you and your families were the light of his life. And now he carries that light into Heaven where your Mom welcomes him with God's warmth and love. May God bless you all.

“ Tracy, Tim, Todd & Jessica
My sincere condolences to you all on your Dad's passing. I know you did your best over the last year, in caring for him the best you could. I think your Mom needed him now more than you so asked God to bring him Home with her. You'll miss him but know he's no longer sick and in a much better place. He'll be watching over your whole family now from afar. I'll keep you in my prayers and hope that your inner strength will get you through this difficult time.

God bless you. R.I.P. your Dad
