“ So sorry to hear of the passing away of a dear mother and grandmother. It is especially hard to lose a parent, with all the love and memories. We can take comfort in knowing that her life was valuable to so many persons, and she contributed goodness to the world. Daniel 12:2 says: "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life..." She is in God's care now and he will not forget her goodness. Continue to reflect her strength and goodness in your life. Best Regards and Wishes

“ The whole Albrecht family sends their sympathy to all of you. I only have a few very rare memories of Ruth Goodfellow and the wonderful time I spent with the whole Goodfellow family on one past thanksgiving - they always made me feel a part of their family. Every content and successful life must finally end but it is surely the nicest thing to a parent to know that one has raised great kids! Again, our deepest sympathy to all of you - we wish we could be closer but we hope nevertheless that our best wishes will calm your sorrows even if they arrive from very far.
