“ God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered come to me with tearful eyes they watched you and saw you pass away although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best. I will remember you always.

“ God doesn't makes know no mistakes he knows when are time is up I've only know u for a short time but Ive shed a tear for a wonderful lady and someone who was really close to a loved one of mine. God knows where tired and knows when its time god had a plan for you and u carry out is work now he said its for you to come with me and be with your family up in heaven . We may shed a tear or two but we will always remember the good times we laugh and we cherish you and everything you stood for . You will be missed but not forgotten in mind , body and spirit . Your Walking around heaven now no more pain and suffering. Every time we look up in the sky well see your smile . God Bless You

“ Even tho we have never met, I know how much you meant to our family. From what I read and heard, you sound like a very amazing person! Even though I didn't know you, I will still miss you! You meant a lot to my husband (Frank), so you mean a lot to me too! Frank wanted so bad to go see you and for you to meet our son! But we know that you are looking down on us! God let us borrow one of his angels and we got alittle greedy with you and wanted to keep you all to ourselves! (: How could you blame us?!? We all know that you are in a much better and safer place. Reunited with your loved ones, whom you once lost. Don't get too carried away up there, we will all one day be reunited with you! One day we will meet and you can tell me storys about Frank and everyone else! (: Until then, miss you and love you! By the way, I thank you for giving us Ed, which gave me my husband and son! I could not ask for anything greater! Love, Frank, Kristin and Frankie!

“ Ruth Bailey Stokel June 22, 1930 December 29, 2009 God looked around his garden, and he found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth, and he saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering He knew you were in pain He knew you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills hard to climb, so He closed your eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine" It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

“ I love you so much mom. I miss you more than I can ever say. My heart is breaking because I am without you. Your grandchildren miss you as well, especially Zach. He is taking this so hard. I am taking comfort in the fact that you have found your way back home to God and the rest of your heavenly family. You are whole again. No more pain and suffering. Only your laughter and beautiful smile to brighten the way for everyone else. I will see you again.

“ Ma, although we didnt get a chance to see you, you were in our thoughts all the time. We will always remember you. It always gives us a chuckle when we talked about how Joey made you go out in the rain when he was 6 yrs old cause he told you he was allergic to slice bread. In the pouring rain you went out to get italian bread for him, thats just the grandma you are! You will be missed so much. I'm only glad to know that you are no longer in any pain. You are with Eddie, Dennis and now my Steven got to finally meet his grandma Ruth. Thank you for loving me as one of your own. We love you very much.. RIP
