

Sandra Mau Weed

December 11, 2002

Sandra Mau Weed, 54, of 5965 Appletree Point Road, New Hope, died Wednesday of cancer. Born in Syracuse, she graduated from Moravia High School. She was a secretary for Air Land Emergency Resource Team in Big Sandy, Texas, from 1997 to 2002. She was a member and treasurer of Calvary Baptist Church in New Hope. Survivors: Her husband of 36 years, Donald L. Sr.; a daughter, Danielle E. Weed of New Hope; two sons, Donald L. Jr. of Grandville, S.C., and Daniel I. of New Hope; her father, Herman J. Mau Jr. of New Hope; two sisters, Christine Matijas and Tamara Severson, both of New Hope; a brother, Chester Mau of New Hope; two grandchildren. Services: 10:30 a.m. Saturday in First Baptist Church. Spring burial, New Hope Cemetery. Calling hour, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Saturday in the church, 21 State St., Skaneateles. B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus, has arrangements. Contributions: Calvary Baptist Church, 5965 Appletree Point Road, Moravia, NY