

Stephen Cebrick

September 18, 2008

Stephen R. Cebrick, 58, of Pocono Lake, died peacefully Thursday, September 18, 2008. Born in Kingston, he was a son of the late Stephen and Adella Kolojejchick Cebrick. He was a graduate of Swoyersville High School. Steve is a Marine Corps veteran and served in the Vietnam War. He was formerly employed at Acme Warehouse, Forty Fort, InterMetro, Wilkes-Barre, and the last years of his life, at Tobyhanna Army Depot. He was very active with labor unions, lastly serving as chief steward for the Defense Logistic Agency. Surviving are his loving wife, the former Catherine Havrilak Cebrick; daughters, Amy Smith, St Louis, Mo.; Laura Lee Cebrick, New York City; grandchildren, Elizabeth, Emily and Ava Smith; sisters, Deborah Kennedy, Clark Summit; Patricia Corcoran, West Wyoming; many nieces and nephews. Steve will be missed by all who knew and loved him, in addition to his "Labs," Jasmine, Hershey and Twizzler. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in St Tikhon's Monastery Church, South Canaan. Interment in St Tikhon's Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St Tikhon's Orthodox Church, South Canaan, Pa., or the Marine Corps "Toys for Tots Christmas Project."

Tribute Wall

KG

“ im very sorry to hear aboutt this 5 years later. he was a nice man. i knew him from when i was in high school and hangin out with laura at the house. sorry laura. hope everything is ok now.

kim gaghan - January 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM