“ We are very sorry to hear of her passing. Matt knew her a short time, but I know he thought a lot of her and enjoyed time spent with together. He was flattered by her attention and kind words.

“ Mama Sue, "Babe", and Scottish Lassie, I don't think I have ever had this certain feeling towards someone besides you. "Babe" was your favorite name that I called you, and I will cherish that for as long as I live. Your thoughtfulness and warm-hearted feelings towards not only me, but everyone in the Swenson family and everyone around loved you for who you are, a loving, scottish lassie. It was my honor to visit you as much as I could while I was near you, and I just wanted you to know that I loved every ticking second of it, from just sitting on the couch talking, to the oh-so-many trips down the doughnut isle in wegmans. I loved every minute of it. You are my love and my best friend. I will miss you so much Mama Sue, and I will be seeing you at some point in the future. I am not going to say goodbye, but a "see you later." I love you. Love Always, Ian

“ I feel so fortunate to be able to express my love and appreciation for Mama Sue. What a wonderful woman she was who had the ability to laugh about anything and make others do the same. Being friends with the Kilburn family, has blessed me in so many ways, including the opportunity to have shared many memories and laughs with Mama Sue. She could always light up a room and I'm sure she will do the same in heaven. Our most sincere thoughts and prayers go out to her family during this time. With Love Always,
Chelsey and Brent

“ Mama Sue~ You have always meant so much to me. I cannot begin to explain how upset I am. But I know you are up there making everyone laugh and you are looking down watching over all of us. You have waited so long to see Papa and Uncle David, and I am so happy that you are finally with them. Just know we are all missing you down here, and will always be a part of us. Not only were you my Grandma, you were also one of my best friends. I am going to miss that cute little accent of yours for the rest of my life. LYNC darling - you were always my favorite. Love, Britt

“ Mama Sue, Sadly, I only knew you for a short time, but what a time it was. From the first moment I heard that intoxicating accent I was hooked, like so many before and after me. I feel honored to have known you in my life, and I will cherish our moments together until we are again united. I am happy for you to be back with your cherished husband and son. My heart goes out to the Kilburn and Swenson clans. You are all amazing and i treasure our memories
With love, Matt... a.k.a. Prime

“ How fortunate I am to able to call "Mama Sue" my Aunt. There are so many fond memories of holidays, birthdays and family gatherings that always ended up at the kitchen table where we would all laugh ourselves silly. Although miles have seperated us for many years, I am so grateful that my children got to share in some of those memories as well. Of course every phone call would start, "Hey Lel, I got a joke for you". So....here's one for Mama Sue! Why do Scots wear kilts? Because their wives can hear a zipper a mile away! Bill, Di and Kar you had the a great Mom. Thinking of you and love you all.

“ The Hinton clan will very much miss our very own Mrs. Doubtfire ! Sue was so wonderful and full of life, has a wicked sense of humor and always appreciated a good joke. I'm so grateful that my mother (Mary Van de Castle) had such a good friend for over 50 years. Sue was at our family reunion in July '08 and she had just a fabulous time and I'm grateful to have spent that day with her. We're so sorry for your loss. Vanessa, John and Emily Kapral and Mary Van de Castle.

“ As we reflect on our memories of Mama Sue, we wanted to find a Scottish quote that fit her. We believe that she portrayed this so much. For this we are so blessed to have shared in many times of laughter with her, and able to watch the love that she had for her family and friends, and that she so warmly extended to us and our family when we would be together. "You have achieved success when you have lived well, laughed often, and loved much." To all her family, we share in your loss, and wish you comfort in this difficult time. Love, Steve and Kathy
