“ I remember the summer fun we had scrambling all over the Empress, your building your own dock, and generally running around as kids. I miss you Tom!

“ I have thought about Tommy over the years since I stopped working downtown where I would occasionally bump into him. But back much further I was Tommy's Sunday School teacher at PCPC for a bit. He was such a sweet boy and I was so fond of him. Then later, as I mentioned, I would see him now and then downtown. We'd stop and chat for a few moments - a grown up man but that sweet boy was still so evident. I am sorry to learn of his death. Donna Stoner

Tom was a fine man who was proud of his family heritage. He had a tremendous appetite for history and an extensive knowledge base. Deepest sympathy to all who loved Tom. He will be greatly missed but not forgotten. Doug Clapper

Tom used to walk to my dad's house on Durston Ave ,always drink a glass of orange juice with him, and spend time conversing. My dad would then drive him to his residence Tom felt comfortable there and always left with a smile It's a nice memory.
