

Timothy E. O'Toole

July 5, 1954 - August 16, 2024

Timothy "Tim" Edward O'Toole, 70, of Syracuse, NY, entered into eternal rest on August 16, 2024. Born on July 5, 1954, in Binghamton, NY, Tim graduated from Chittenango High School before proudly serving in the U.S. Army. As a Specialist, he worked as a self-propelled field artillery turret mechanic, spending much of his military career in Germany during the Cold War.

Following his honorable discharge, Tim embraced a new chapter in life as a SCUBA instructor, sharing his passion for the underwater world while working alongside his father, Patrick, and brother, Patrick, in Florida. Tim's love for adventure and exploration extended beyond the ocean to his hobbies and interests. He had a deep appreciation for fishing, dogs, history, and cinema. His Irish and Scottish heritage was a source of pride, and his love for the outdoors was a gift he passed on to his family, leaving an indelible mark on their lives. Tim's legacy lives on through the lessons he taught, the love he shared, and the memories that will be cherished forever. He was predeceased by his parents, E. Patrick O'Toole and Jacqueline Eager, as well as his siblings Colleen (O'Toole) Adler, Michael Eager, and Patrick O'Toole.

Timothy is survived by his beloved daughter, Michaela Mikulsky, and her husband Stephen Mikulsky, and his cherished grandchildren, Carolyn and Clark Mikulsky. He is also survived by his siblings Kathleen O'Toole, Michael O'Toole, Kim Eager, Kelly (Eager) Nottingham, Kelly O'Toole-Scotto, and
