Today you would be 18 years old!!! Not a day goes by where I don't think of you and the joy you brought into my life when you were born! I would do anything to have you back in my arms, to watch you grow into a woman, as you'll always be my little girl. I love and miss you just as I did on the day you left me holding you in my arms, I will never stop loving you and wishing for the day I can hold you again!!!!
Happy Birthday in heaven my beautiful Angel❤️🙏

“ My dear angel.....it's been many years now since I have been able to hold you, or smell your beautiful fragrance. Though that's all I long for everyday since you left me, I know now it cannot be true till I come to meet you when the time is right. It's amazing how you have touched me in my heart and soul with the brief amount of time you shared on this earth. I have tried to dedicate the life I have left to honor you and your memory, but I know I have failed many times. You are all I think of, are all I know, I want nothing more than to just see you one more time, I think that will get me thru years to come, but it would only make me long for you more. Nothing in life has ever been the same, my emotions have changed, my feelings have changed, things I used to enjoy in life are all meaningless now, I try so hard to find any joy, I haven't even celebrated my birthday since that day in 2009 when I took you to the hospital for the last time, and just when I think it's safe to laugh, it hits me that you were my reason for laughing and living.....I love you sooooo much!

“ To my Angel Tristyn, Today wasn't a good day for Grandma. As I am sure not for Skyler, Mommie and Daddy either. I know everyone says the days and nights will get easier, but I know too it will be a long time before that happens. I was just sitting starring out the window at the driveway, remembering all the times when you , Sissy, Mommie and Daddy would come for a visit. You would get out of the truck or car and run up the driveway to see me yelling Grandma, Grandma. You had your way about it different from Skyler. I miss hearing those words. There is not a day that goes by I don't think of you and your beautiful smile. I miss you so much. I know that where you are you are at peace and not alone. You just received another Angel like you this past week. Your friend ashleigh. You two became buds in the hospital and I know that she is along side of you with Nanie and Spencer. Tristyn I feel blessed everyday to of known you even for such a short time. I will never forget you. You are in my thoughts and heart always. Now when I look up to the sky at night and I see the stars I see you and your friend Ashleigh. fly high my little Angels. Until we meet someday. Love Always Grandma Sherlock

“ In praying for the Wainwrights, I also get word of other precious ones that need prayer. My heart broke to hear of your loss and I just wanted to send my condolences and prayers for comfort and peace for you and your family. Your daughter was so precious and as a mother myself I can only imagine what it would be like to lose a child. The time you had with her was a gift and only God can fill the voids that are left in our hearts when we suffer such great loss. Just know that your daughter's life touched many people who did not even meet her (but I will someday), that's how powerful her legacy is! A friend, of a friend, of a friend

“ Tristyn, The day God blessed my life with you I will never forget. We have shared joy and pain and that in between, but no matter what it was you stuck together to make it thru. Tristyn I am trying to be that mom that I was the day you were born and the mom you would want me to be. There is a part of me that is gone and I don't know if I can ever be whole again. It get's harder and harder everyday to stay strong for you and for the family, but all I think about is how strong you were and that truly is an inspiration to me. Tristyn you always something new to my life, now my life is simple. You were my sunshine even on a rainy day. The simple things in life you never took for granted, you took life with a stride of hope and encouragement. I just hope that one day I will be able to take life the way you did for four months straight the hardest four months in a 4 years life, that could ever be dealt their way. Thru those last four months of your battle you showed not only yourself but family and friends that you ere not a quitter, but a kid who was going to fight thru it all. Tristyn you took everything that God gave you to face and made it into "A Climb", a climb that you were determined to finish. The pain that you indured made you more determined to fight with verything that you had left. As for this day that I lay my Angel to rest in Gods Kingdom, I know that she is no longer in pain, but in joyeous relief that she can now be a part of Gods Kingdom and walk among all the Angels who will watch over us till it is our time to join the loved ones that we have lost. I know that the time I have spent with you as my daughter will be memories that I will carry with me till it is my time for you to meet me at the gates of Heaven to join you. But till that day in my heart and soul I will carry you. Tristyn you taught me that no matter the obsticules that are thrown my way in life I need to always be determined to overcome them and to believe that I can. You showed me how to fighter harder and to never give up. So Tristyn till the day that mommy can be with you again, I will forever carry that torch of light with the flame that is my guiding light to lead each day of my life like it will be my last. That flame will burn in my heart brighter and brighter for you thru every waking day without you to travel those open roads with me. Tristyn you have become many peoples Guardian Angel and there inspiration, you have showed them that no matter the battles that are thrown your way that there is a way to always try to overcome them and never finish the Climb of Life without that extra bit of hope and the insite that you truely did live life to the fullest. I also want to thank all of you, family and friends for being there from the begining and helping us thru these difficult times. For all of you, you are now a part of our family and you are the ones who will always help carry the laughter and joys of Tristyn for many years to come. Tristyn's memory will never fade with family and friends like all of you. Thank You. Tristyn, mommy loves you very much and I miss you everyday, but I look at your picture and remeber the memories and it helps me make thru another day. I love you my Sweet Angel. XOXOXOXOX

“ To my Grand daughter Trish. I look at your toys daily in the garage and all I do is think about you. The things you said to me and did with me. For the time you were with us I have cherished them and I look forward to talking to you daily beacuse of my love for you. When Papa is in the garage I look at the door, waiting for it to open and see you standing there with your princess shoes and dress on to come out and play with me. But it hasn't happened in weeks. I keep thinking you will be there with me daily. Papa misses you everyday that you have left us. As each day goes by I will hold you in my heart, honey. You gave me joy and happiness from the day I held you in my arms. You and your sister have always been my pride and joy. And I would of done anything and everything for the both of you. If Papa could have taken your sickness from you I would have .I have already lived a long life compared to you. I know you are watching over us daily beacuse I feel your presence among us and I know you are taking care of us. I miss you daily and I love you with all my heart. Love Papa I will be thinking about you daily and forever.

“ Allen, Courtney and Skyler (Honey Girl) I know that words alone, can not take your pain away at this low point in your lives. But knowing that as each day passes it will some how get better. Even though Tristyn was in your lives for such a short time. Remember that Tristyn was a very special daughter and sister who brought you all so much joy, friendship and love. Tristyn maybe gone now, but her spirit lives on in all of you. She will never be forgotten. The only comfort that you have now is knowing that Tristyn is flying high, where she feels no more pain and is at peace. Our little angel is looking down on the three of you and the rest of the family. Watching and keeping us safe until one day, when we will all be together as a family again. Love Mom, Grandma Sharon

“ This is for Tristyn my little Honey Bear There is not a day that goes by since you left, that I don't think of you. Wheather I be looking at your pictures, or seeing you wearing your favorite purple skirt , horse shirt and your pink Ariel hat that you loved so much. Or just remembering how you use to hide my pretty rocks in the drawers. Even when I look at the large sea shell on the shelf that you and I use to listen to the waves of the ocean. You are there, you are everywhere in the house. It's a good thing, cause now I have so many memories of you to cherish now and forever. I am so glad that Tristyn you were in my life even thought it was for such a short time. I learned so much from someone so young. You brought me so much joy, laughter, love and even sadness at the end. Tristyn I hated to see you go, but I knew God was calling you home to heaven. And we know he is greater than I. So My Little Honey Bear until we meet again. Love Your Grandma Sharon

“Sis, Allen an sky.. I just want to say I am sorry that I was not there through this hard time for you three an are family. All of you were on my mind day an night. Being this far away sucks and knowing I didn't get to say goodbye an do pound with my little devil once more hurts so much. She was more than my baby niece her an sky are my inspiration. And now that she's gone it feels like I only have half of my inspiration. But as each day goes by I know she is watching over me and keeping me safe. I will never forget the good times I had with her. Like teaching her to play soccer, dancing with her an watching her shake her booty which always put a smile on my face. Especially seeing her big smile when I first walked into her hospital room. She is my angel and I will never forget her. I will always be her soldier boy and I will get home safe cause I have her watching over me. I love you tristyn aka my little devil..

“ Tristyn, I have shared all the joys of life with you, I have shared all of the pain that life has brought our way. Thru it all you have been the guiding light that keeps me coming home, now the brightest path I have is to know that all of your pain and fears have been extinguished. I know now that you rest in bliss, and harmony, you hear nothing but love and laughter. I'm thankful that GOD has found you and made you his own in his Kingdom of Heaven, I too shall see you in this light when I reach the end of my tunnel. I will live out my days with you in my heart and soul, your memory will be the air that I breathe. With the short years I spent with you I have no regrets only tears of joy, and lessons learned that only you could teach, these lessons will make me the man I am now about to become. On this day that I lay you to rest within his hands and guided by the angels created before you I start the flame of forever that will shine the beauty you possessed here on earth, it will keep my soul warm, until you call and I go cold. Tristyn I Love You, Tristyn I Will Never Leave You, Tristyn You Are My Angel, Tristyn I Will Continue The Climb We Started!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! To all of our friends and family that have helped us thru I want to personally thank you, and want you all to know that you will have a place in our family's heart. “ GOD'S LENT CHILD "I'll lend you for a little while A child of mine,"
God said, "For you to love the while she lives, And mourn for when she's dead. It may be two or three years, Or forty-two or three; But will you, till I call her back, Take care of her for me? She'll bring her charms to gladden you And should her stay be brief, You'll have her lovely memories As a solace for your grief. I cannot promise she will stay, Since all from earth return; But there are lessons taught below I want this child to learn. I've looked the whole world over In my search for teachers true; And from the things that crowd life's lane I have chosen you. Now will you give her all your love? Nor think the labor vain? Nor hate me when I come to take This lent child back again? I fancied that I heard them say "Dear Lord, Thy will be done. For all the joys thy child will bring, The risk of grief we'll run. We will shelter her with tenderness, We'll love her while we may- And for the happiness we've known, Forever grateful stay. But should thy angels call for her Much sooner than we've planned, We'll brave the bitter grief that comes And try to understand."

“ Dear Allen, Courtney Skyler, Though I don't know you and have never had the pleasure of knowing Tristyn, from what I have read she was a wonderful child who was loved by everyone who knew her. I too have lost two children so I have walked in your shoes. As you know with your first loss that time does go on but the hurt never goes away. It was comforting for me to know that both of my children are now together. I find that if I can think of my son daughter everyday with a smile it makes life a little easier. I also have a grandson that at the age of 3 told me that the crest of the moon is his Aunt Jennifer smiling down on us. “ Allen, Courtne and Skyler, Words can not adequately express how sorry we are to hear of the passing of Tristyn. Nor could our minds possibly comprehend the sorrow you must be going through; and will continue to go through. The remembrance video of Tristyn is beautiful. As difficult as that may have been to create, I can't thank you enough for sharing a small part of your little girl that many of us didn't have the chance to know. May God uplift you in your sorrow. We will keep you all in prayer.

“ ALLEN & COURTNEY, TRISTYN HAS ALREADY STARTED HER JOURNEY ON BECOMING AN ANGEL. SHE HAS ALREADY TAUGHT SO MANY PARENTS TO LOVE THEIR CHILDREN A LITTLE MORE. TO BE MORE UNDERSTANDING, TO GIVE MORE HUGS & KISSES, TO PLAY AND LAUGH AND LISTEN. TO MAKE US REALIZE HOW PRECIOUS OUR CHILDREN ARE AND THAT GOD HAS A PLAN FOR ALL OF US, EVERY PARENT THAT KNEW TRISTYN WOULD GO HOME AND HUG THEIR CHILD A LITTLE TIGHTER. TRISTYN, WE THANK YOU ON A LESSON WELL LEARNED. ALWAYS IN OUR PRAYERS, AUNT BETS, UNCLE RON, LEXIE

“ To Allen, Courtney & Sklyer: This is for you; The Cord We are connected, My child and I, by An invisible cord Not seen by the eye. It's not like the cord That connects us 'til birth This cord can't been seen By any on Earth. This cord does it's work Right from the start. It binds us together Attached to my heart. I know that it's there Though no one can see The invisible cord From my child to me. The strength of this cord Is hard to describe. It can't be destroyed It can't be denied. It's stronger than any cord Man could create It withstands the test Can hold any weight. And though you are gone, Though you're not here with me, The cord is still there But no one can see. It pulls at my heart I am bruised...I am sore, But this cord is my lifeline As never before. I am thankful that God Connects us this way A mother and child Death can't take it away! My deepest sympathys for the beautiful Tristyn, with love from Tony, Robin, Jessica & Shelby

“ I found this quote and I think it says a lot. “The death of a child is like a stone cast into the stillness of a quiet pool; the concentric ripples of despair sweep out in all directions, affecting many, many people.” Allen, Courtney and Skylar, we consider you family and we feel like we lost a family member too. “ He only takes the best God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around her and whispered, "Come with me." With tear filled eyes we watched her suffer and fade away. Although we loved her deeply, we could not make her stay. A little heart stop beating, her little hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best. So very sorry for the loss of beautiful little Tristyn. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. She will be sadly missed.
