“ I just want to send my thoughts, prayers and condolences to all the friends, family and people who had the opportunity to know my best friend of 30 years WARREN J WRIGHT.

I was notified early Sunday of his passing Friday. Those who know me know that Warren was not only my best friend but family, teacher and confidant. He is the friend you are only blessed once in a life time to have. I am grateful for having been a part of his life as well as him a part of mine and my direct families life.

As I mourn the loss of my best friend I have so many emotions. First I know he had a hard time telling at my last visit his time was near.

And he was hurting. I am more happy than sad. Knowing he fought every day I knew him and he is not hurting and has won the ultimate fight of gaining peace. But more happy for all he taught me and how we always understood and respected each other without judgement.

He was reliable dependable giving loving caring and my brother.

To Warren's family and friends I send all my love and support. He loved and cherished his family his children his grandchildren and great grandchildren. As I will be attending services teusday evening for my dearest friend. I ask all to pray for strength and peace for his family.

RIP WARREN I WILL CHERISH YOU AND OUR 30 years of good and tough times.

Love your friend and brother

To all of you my deepest sympathies and prayers. I have seen that signature head scratch thousands of times. I am truly honored to call your dad my best and closest friend for 28 years. Never question how much you all meant to him. Over 28 years and countless time and conversations, I can assure each and every member of the family that he loved cherished and spoke of one or more of you every conversation with me for 28 years. May my words help in your loss and reaffirm that you all meant the absolute heavens and earth to him
