“ Even though as a little child I knew him, I never really had the chance to see him in my passing years as a kid to a teenager and now as a man. My mother told me about him and everything he did in his life, as I write this at my Grandmothers home, I feel calm and easy knowing he is home with Jesus now and I hope that he meets any one who is family whether it be from my mothers side or my fathers side, Grandpa Moore, I love you.

“ The family of Wayne has my deepest sympathy (especially Leona & Roxanne) I used to live next to them when the girls was young. I did see Wayne after he retired & talked to him a for a while. I moved to Fl. in 2004, so have not seen him in quite a while. Just remember the good times you had with him & it help you get thru losing him. God Bless the whole family
