“ Looking at the beautiful tributes to our nephew, Billy Kincaid, I think of the saying, "Its not always the years in your life, but the Life in your years." Bill proved that over and over: In his school life, his work with co-workers and clients alike, his Coaching many young people over the years, a noble career; and, most importantly the Love he had for his family. Barb, Bill, Billy's sisters, Wendy, Brenna, and Meaghan, he will always be with you, there guiding you and loving you, from above, with our God. Uncle Dick and Aunt Mary Beth Abbott Camillus, NY

“ Mr and Mrs Kincaid and Family, My memories of Billy go back to kindergarten and through out school. Billy always had such a great positive energy about him and as I am writing this message I am saddened by his loss but can't stop smiling just thinking about what a Great person he was and what a wonderful person to be around. I have not seen Billy in over 20 years put its no surprise that he was a great Dad and Coach, When ever I think of him it will bring a smile because of the positive memories he left. We will be praying for comfort and understanding for all of your Family

“ To the entire Kincaid family: My heart sank when I got the phone call from my Mom and an email from a friend to give me the news of your loss; our loss too. Reading through all of the heart felt messages put a smile on my face. Everyone remembers Billy just as I did; a fun-loving guy. And looking at all of the addresses of those that signed the guest book proves that loved stretched far and wide. Family, you should be proud of that! Be strong and I pray that God will continue to comfort, bless and keep you during this time.

“ This is a big tragedy. Bill was a decent man. He said a lot of encouraging things to me while we were going to school. I remember first meeting him when we were in the 2nd grade. Even then he seemed to be a source of inspiration. He had a certain zest for everything he did especially sports. He was a fierce competitor. I can imagine that he was a great coach. All I can say is that Bill must have been in worse shape than everyone thought. I can only hope and pray that he has finally found serenity and that he rests in peace.

“ My family and I are truly saddened by your loss. Billy and I did alot of growing up together. Those were good memories. We lost touch over the years but I would hear of how well his carrier and family were doing. I was so glad for him, he was a good man. I only wish I could have been part of that. He leaves behind a family he can be proud of and memories we will all cherish .

“ Dear Barbara Bill, I have lost track of you after you moved out of state, and I don't know where you live now. I have lost three son`s and it is one of the worst things that happens in the world. I just lost my son Bill 9/27/2012. So I know how bad you are feeling, there is nothing nobody say`s that helps even still today. Very sorry for your loss

“ Coach Kincaid will always be a very special person to me. My heart goes out to his family during this time of pain. The memories I have with coach are strong and will never fade. He was an amazing coach. Not only were we a team, but we were all one big family. Coach made every dreadful 'red mill' run fun for us all. He was always up in front of the pack telling stories as we were running, and he always ran back to encourage those who fell behind. His passion not only for the sport of soccer, but also for coaching, was very real. I am so very thankful for everything coach Kincaid taught me over the years and all the wonderful memories shared with him and our team. Coach Kincaid was an amazing coach, and an even more amazing person. I'm sure he's up in heaven kickin around a soccer ball watching over us all. He's touched a lot of people's lives and the memories of coach Kincaid will never die. May you rest in peace coach. Thank you for everything

“ Thinking of you all, the Kincaid's, Wendy and daughters. Praying for your peace and understanding during this difficult transition time. I have many fond memories with your family growing up. Some funny ones are... watching 'Soul Train' on Saturdays at your house, playing sports in our yard, and Billy somehow convincing me to let him practice his wrestling moves on me when I was too young to know better, lol. He will be missed by all, those close to him now, and those who have wonderful memories of him growing up. May he now rest in peace with himself. God bless, Pamela

“ Dear cousin, the memories of our childhood live on forever. Such good times, laughs, and friendship. I pray you have found peace. I know our other family members are wrapping their loving arms around you, and we can all find peace in the fact you are all together looking out for us here on Earth. See you on the other side Billy. Hugs!

“ My deepest sympathies go out to Billy's family. I moved to Port Byron in fifth grade and lived around the corner for many years and graduated with Billy. He was an all around great guy and was friends with everyone that he knew. I recall playin ball in the road on Green st with all the neighborhood kids ! Those days are long gone but the memories we shared of growing up in a small town will never fade. Rest in Peace my friend, may god comfort you...

“ I have been a co-worker of Bills for the past 14 years. Bill was a very special person. Those blue eyes, that smile, that laugh, and those stories from real life adventures. I will miss him every day. Words are inadequate to express the pain and surreal sorrow I feel. I just want to express my deepest sympathies to Bills family and friends. And I want his family to know in your hearts and in your minds, that Bill loved you very much.

“ Bill and I had been co-workers since we were both hired by NYS in 1980. I will always cherish our years together, his smiling face and ready laugh. We travelled quite a bit together around our region to various work sites, and Bill always had the perfect out of the way place to eat dinner and rehash the events of the day. I'll miss him forever. My sympathies go out to Brenna and Meaghan, and to the rest of his family and friends...

“ My heart goes out to all Bills family & friends, especially his girls. Around 2nd or 3rd grade Bill & I were good buddies. He spent the night at my house, I spent the night at his, typical grade school stuff. As we got into high school, we grew apart. Even though we didn't hang with the same crowds, everytime we'd see each other, he'd treat me like we were still little buddies. A rare trait back then. As we reconnected in recent years, I could see he was the same genuine caring person I used to know. We talked of meeting up when I came home to visit family. I always looked up to Billy, that will never change. My heart is sad that he's gone, but my life was made better because he was my friend. Godspeed Billy Kincaid.
