

Wilma Masarek Roberts

April 2, 1929 - March 6, 2022

Wilma Anna Masarek Roberts, 92, was born on April 2, 1929 in Syracuse, New York to Stephen and Anna Masarek. She passed away on March 6, 2022 while a resident of Forestview on East Fayette Street, Syracuse, New York.

She attended Syracuse City Schools and worked as a legal secretary for General Electric until she “retired” in 1968 to marry James B. Roberts and move to Florida. During her time in Florida she worked in a legal office and later for RCA.

Her greatest pleasures in life included participating, performing, listening to and enjoying choral music and opera. She had fond memories of her travels to Europe and the Holy Land. She also loved cats, parakeets and chocolate. She was predeceased by her husband in 2001 and her sister, Amelia in 2007.

She is survived by nieces and nephews.

Burial next to her husband was held in Lake Worth Cemetery, Lake Worth, Florida.

Arrangements by the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus, NY.
